

1776 Guest Synopsis

CAMPAIGN RESOURCES & MARKETING	GUEST	Brief BIO	TOPIC	SYNOPSIS	BOOKS
ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Kat Cammack	US House of Representatives, Florida's 3rd Congressional District as the youngest Republican woman in the 117th Congress. Alumnus of the Naval War College, served as the longtime former deputy chief of staff for the district prior to her election in 2020.	From homeless to the US house of Representatives, there is hope for our future.	This interview from The Answer is YES podcast, is motivational and educational. Keep your eyes one this rising star in conservative politics. Kat shows us that there is hope for our country with leaders like her.
POLITICAL ACTION	Jeff Laszloffy	President, Montana Family Foundation	The Montana Family Foundation is a non-profit, research and education organization dedicated to supporting, protecting and strengthening Montana families.	November 29th. Information, education, involvement, legislation legal/judicial. The long term strategies and lobby efforts of the Montana Family Foundation and its partners is a phenomenal resource and the progress, victories, and resources make this a must watch interview.
CAMPAIGN RESOURCES & MARKETING	Ron Catlett	Field Director, US Senator Daines (MT)	Getting Involved and Future Directions	Get motivated by Ron's story of getting involved in politics young, what he learned covering state politics as a journalist, how he became a Field Director for a US Senator, and what he sees ahead.
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Rod Kuntz and Jim Riley	Co-founders, The 1776 Syndicate	Election Recap, lessons, and forward direction	The Red Wave didn't happen nationally. Although Montana had many victories, we still need work on the judicial elections and must gear upon for local school board elections in 2023. The FIRE is hotter than ever!
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Chris Patterson	Community Solutions Advisor, Worked under HUD Secretary Ben Carson overseeing HUD Region IX (CA, AZ, HI, NV, and US Territories and Commonwealths)	Working with Non-Profits and Business on Homelessness	Chris grew up in the foster care system and his understanding of the system—its values and short comings, is an inspiration. Chris shares his journey into the Trump administration and how he continues to work to find solutions for people without government interference or handouts.
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Rod Kuntz and Jim Riley	Co-founders, The 1776 Syndicate	Pre-election observations and insights	Join Jim and Rod as they have a frank discussion about COMPLACENCY in politics, and how to stay motivated for the long haul. When we lose faith in politicians and even society we have to tap into our faith in the founders, our faith in the Constitution, our faith in the Divine and our belief that our future is ultimately up to us. Keep on the gas!
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Sierra Claridge	Analyst, DeliverFund	Getting involved in countering sex traffickers	Sierra walks us through what she learned about sex trafficking while working with DeliverFund. Understanding the difference between smuggling, and trafficking, discovering how prevalent it is, and exploring tools for citizens, law enforcement and legislators is part of that discussion. The harder part is combating the cultural appropriation that is normalizing what used to just happen in the shadows.

POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Arthur Shaper	Field Director, Mass Resistance	Pro-family Activist Exposing and Combating LGBT Indoctrination in Schools	A behind the scenes look at the moral battle being waged for our kids psyches and souls. Arthur shows the truth about the LGBT agenda, its origins, how its gotten a foothold, and the victories they've had when confronting the schools with truth.
ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Brian Friess	Candidate Flathead County Commissioner, Business Owner, Teacher	Why you ran, what you learned, and next steps.	Brian walks us through the decision to put life and work on hold and take on the adventure of campaigning. Although he lost in the primary he has NO regrets about running and shares what he would have done differently, and his aspirations to make a difference in the future.
CAMPAIGN RESOURCES & MARKETING	Jim Riley	Liberty or Lose Political Action Committee	Refining your messaging against Democrats messaging	Exposing cracks and developing competitive strategies in the home stretch. Don't let off the gas!	Freedom to Say YES
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Dr. Ed Berry	Climate Physicist, Sailing Champ, Pilot, Author	The lie about Green House Gas, and why the establishment doesn't want you to know the scientific truth.	Dr. Berry has a peer reviewed scientific paper that debunks manmade climate change. He exposes the lies and the agenda behind them while explaining the facts and scientific truths in lay terms .	Climate Miracle
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Bill Miles	Founder, VALOR Equine Therapy Services (VETS)	A look at what VETs mission is and what they are doing to help our veterans	PTSD affects active and reserve military and their families. How Equine therapy has helped hundreds so far and has thousands more in the wings. Taking care of those who took care of us!
ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Keri Seekins-Crowe	MT House of Representatives	Why she is running again and what politicians mean by "stay in your lane."	We had some technical issues but Kerri's message about getting involved and not fighting procedure or strategy has helped her gain respect and credibility as a representative. Kerri brings common sense and conviction to the table.
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Ted Valentiner	Founder, Save the Cowboy	Tracking the origins of "National Day of the Cowboy"	Ted discusses the arduous task and commitment necessary to get a bipartisan bill passed into law, and the dangers society and the cowboy face with land grabs by special interest groups.
EDUCATION/SCHOOL ISSUES	Morrie Shechtman	Psychotherapist, Corporate Consultant, Author	How did fear lead us to this attitude of entitlement?	With decades of experience in the corporate world, Morrie peels back the layers of cultural behavior that have affected: Education, Business, the Government, and Healthcare. Morrie is no holds barred when he gives you his definitions for "equity" "diversity" and "inclusion."	Working Without a Net, Fifth Wave Leadership
EDUCATION/SCHOOL ISSUES	Scarlen Valderaz	Parents Defending Education, Public School Advocacy Associate	How PDE Empowers, Equips, Exposes and Engages	From Planned Parenthood to books in the libraries, to class surveys, CRT in text books, and the guidance given by counselors, our parents are often out of (or kept out of) the loop when it comes to our children. Scarlen gives advise, tactics and resources to push successfully push back.

ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Jim Atkinson	Former City Councilor (Kalispell, MT, 29 years)	What changes did you see in campaigning and governance in your 29 years.	Jim describes how he got elected for so many terms, and the changes that he witnessed as the community and government grew. From fiscal and environmental impacts, to the money and agendas driving local politics, Jim focused on listening and making the best long-term decisions throughout his career.
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Rod Kuntz	Business Owner, Educator, Entrepreneur	Green Energy's Petroleum Dependency	A common sense, science based look at "green Energy's dependence on petroleum and the unspoken hazards that go along with it. Are we willing to sacrifice our environment for the climate?	The W.A.R.P.A.T.H. Alliance, A Battle Plan to Discover, Develop and Deploy Your Super Powers
ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	John Fuller	MT House of Representatives (4 terms)	How to engage with voters and political constituents—what freshmen lawmakers need to know.	An in-depth look at what it takes to make the sausage in state government. Understanding the sociology and demographics of the House, and all the tips from serving 4 terms!
ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Giuseppe Caltabiano	City Councilor (Whitefish, MT), Angel Flight Pilot, International Businessman, Naturalized Citizen	How to get people involved in government.	"G Man" is legendary as not being a politician and it shows at every Council meeting. His research and appreciation for the law, and adhering to details is an inspiration. He describes winning over his critics, standing firm, his belief in the fabric of leadership, and that compromise becomes bigger the further up you go in politics.
POLITICAL ACTION	Isaac Edikauskas	Grassroots Engagement Director, Americans for Prosperity	How to build a longterm grassroots movement	Issac shares his personal story of getting politically involved and shares the mission of AFP and how he gets people excited, and engaged.
CAMPAIGN RESOURCES & MARKETING	Jim Riley/Rod Kuntz	Founders, The 1776 Syndicate	Primary Election Recap and Future Strategies	A critical look at campaigns won and lost and what we can learn from it. Reasons to stay involved! Develop a strategy, Start fundraising early; get involved by infiltrating boards, clubs, organizations.
EDUCATION/SCHOOL ISSUES	Germaine Wagner	Retired Public School Teacher, National Geographic Trainer, Private School Teacher	The evolution of public education	Germaine brings a critical rearview mirror to her career in education highlighting the many tipping points the Dept of Education and the Union implemented in the last 40 years that have fundamentally changed how and what our children our being exposed to and taught.
EDUCATION/SCHOOL ISSUES	Elsie Arntzen	Montana Superintendent of Public Instruction	Current landscape in Montana Education	Elsie's focus is "Parents are First." She supports parents choice to homeschool, private school, or public school and believes in helping all students succeed. She discusses staffing, budgets, unions, bullying, health and safety, school boards and more...
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Professor Rob Natelson	National Constitutional Scholar and Expert, Country's leading scholar on Article 5, cited by US Supreme Court, federal appeals courts, and state supreme courts.stat	Roe vs Wade, a Legal Analysis	The legal background of Roe V. Wade, why it will likely be overturned, why the preliminary opinion was leaked, and what implications it has for other established court decisions.	The Original Constitution, The Law of Article V

POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Frank Meile	Former Newspaper Editor, Author	The Left's assault on the constitution	Frank has had his finger on the intersection of culture and government his entire career. His insights on peoples' addictive nature to dependency, how idealism shifted to radicalism, and how citizens have become subjects due in part to our educational system will shock and enlighten you!	What Matters Most, How We Got Here, The Media Matrix, Why We Needed Trump (Volume I, II, & III)
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Dr. David Ingram	Library Board Member, over 30 years in the medical profession, business owner, former MT House Candidate	Breaking down the Woke agenda	A deep dive into the psychology of WOKISM as a cult and serious analysis of its parallels to religious orthodoxy.
CAMPAIGN RESOURCES & MARKETING	Sam Rubino	Political Strategist, Field and Streets Political Strategy	How to Utilize media Texting Campaigns	Targeting and reaching voters across multiple platforms is Sam's specialty. Finding voters that will vote FOR you.
ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Brad Abell	County Commissioner (Flathead County, MT), former equipment operator	Discussing the learning curve for a newcomer to politics once elected.	"God doesn't choose the qualified, he qualifies the chosen. " The learning curve is being involved indoor community. Your core values and ability to listen, and learn from explaining your position," are some of Brad's takeaways.
CAMPAIGN RESOURCES & MARKETING	Rachel Svoboda	Marketing Director, Owner of the Nationally acclaimed, and award winning Sunday Brunch Agency	Campaign Marketing Basics	Defining your Brand as a campaigner. Making the most of resources, and getting it all to work together on the campaign trail and truly level up.
EDUCATION/SCHOOL ISSUES	Taalyr Claridge	College Student, Entrepreneur	Pushing back against CRT	When Taalyr's professors and classmates started in with Critical Race Theory, and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion talking points, she pushed back. It's hard to convince and convert a female minority that she's being oppressed when reality is a way of life, and she has a moral obligation to speak the truth.
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Alex Weber	Influencer, Ninja Warrior, Lacross Coach of the Year, Author, He has impacted over 3.5 million people.	Taking action and risk Assessment	After losing a very high profile and lucrative job because he refused to be coerced to take an unproven vaccine, Alex uses his passion to do something with the change that Humor, Heart, and Heat while finding a meaningful way to take action, including his international Town Halls.	Fail Proof: Become the Unstoppable You
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Mary Todd	Former Candidate US House of Representatives, Pastor, Business owner, mother, Author	Identifying why you got involved in politics.	Mary's story is personal and painful. Translating that into action at the highest level was necessary because when the stakes are high, you go all in."To resist is a duty under tyranny," and Mary has first hand accounts of how close we are. Prior to her run for US Congress the only record Mary had was an arrest record—you have to listen to her story!	Hard Drive: A Family's Fight Against Three Countries
POLICY AND SOCIAL ISSUES	Megan Wildhood	Reformed Liberal Activist	How to understand and push back against the far left.	Raised by liberals, Megan marched and rioted with Antifa and BLM and participated in the CHAZ occupation in Seattle. When her allies turned on her, she realized she had been brainwashed and broke free. She shares a unique insight into the mentality and thought processes of the radical left and how we can take steps to open their eyes as well. Be prepared to learn a new way of thinking this is a Masters course in Psychology and Sociology!

ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Gary Hall	Former Mayor (Columbia Falls) and County Commissioner (Flathead County, MT)	The legacy of your public service.	Gary talks us through some of the challenges he faced during boom and bust cycles and how thick skin, preparation and study, listening and praying helped him succeed and make some lasting changes in local government when you “get involved for the right reasons.”
POLITICAL ACTION	Evie Calahan	President, Flathead Republican Women, Consultant, Former Commander Montgomery Police Department	Women and leadership in and out of politics.	We all know that women are strong, capable and powerful, and Evie has embodied all of these characteristics throughout her careers. Empowering women to stand upon, speak top, and get in the trenches is not only a passion, it’s a necessity. Don’t miss this dynamic episode.
ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Mark Noland	MT House of Representatives (4 terms), Business Owner, Entrepreneur, many other church and community affiliations.	How to engage in politics when you are a business person, and what advantages or disadvantages does that bring.	Mark is truly inspirational to anyone who values people. Character and values and an interest in all sides should be how we conduct ALL areas of our life. Mark is Legacy minded and asks “What are you willing to do for YOUR freedom?”
POLITICAL ACTION	Darin Gaub	Founder, Restore Liberty	Building Coalitions	Darin explains how they were able to magnify their efforts and got 250 media interviews, and how they leveraged that into support of non- partisan change in judicial and school board races.
POLITICAL ACTION	Bruce Cartwright	Tiger Team Founder, Republican Central Committee, Former FBI Special Investigator, Firearms Training Instructor, Consultant, former Assistant District Attorney.	How to get people engaged at the local level.	Bruce brings a wealth of experience across several disciplines to let us know how to get things done. Groups and organizations have there place but sometimes it takes a focused few to do the heavy lifting, and the rest follows!
ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Braxton Mitchell	MT House of Representatives, (one of the youngest elected)	What got you interested and started in politics at such a young age?	How do you engage with the young voters? Watch as Brandon shares his story about how concern led to education, involvement in the political process ,and then a successful run for a state house seat. This is the inside scoop on the FAST TRACK!
POLITICAL ACTION	Sam Nunnally	First VP National Pachyderm Clubs, City Councilor, Search and Rescue and Sheriff Reserve Deputy	Getting people involved and educated about politics.	Sam’s long history with the Pachyderm Club illustrates the small but meaningfully changes that we are all capable of when we care enough to get involved.
POLITICAL ACTION	John Fuller	Vet, Coach, Retired History and Economics Teacher and Montana House of Representatives	Importance of local elections	Mr. Fuller taught his students for decades that local elections were the most important votes they could cast. Listen in as this perpetual teacher explains why School Boards, City Councils, County Commissioners, and the Sheriffs you elect are so important.
ELECTED OFFICIALS/ CANDIDATES	Rod Kuntz	Former City Councilor (Kalispell, MT), City/ County Health Board Member, Author	Campaign prep, first steps, and getting organized	Rod covers the basics from filing and asking for donations, to getting your campaign materials and making public appearances. Everything you need is now in one spot at The 1776 Syndicate — we learned the hard way so you don’t have to!

EDUCATION/SCHOOL ISSUES	Jim Riley	Smith Valley School Board Trustee, Author	Seeing the Big Picture.	If you don't think one person can make a difference, or that littler things don't matter, think again. Join us as Trustee Jim Riley gives us a glimpse of the importance of being involved, and staying involved. Our future literally depends on it!	